PLAGIARISM AND COLLUSION

Plagiarism is 'a practice that involves the using of another person's intellectual output and presenting it as one's own'. This includes the presentation of work that has been copied, in whole or part, from other sources (including other students' work, published books or periodicals, or unpublished works or unauthorized collaboration with other persons), without due acknowledgement.

CONSEQUENCES OF PLAGIARISM AND COLLUSION

A student found guilty of plagiarism will be subject to one or all of the following:

Referral to Course Coordinator for: counseling; submission of further work; use of the services of Student Learning Unit; the placing of a record of the alleged infringement on the student's file.

Referral of the matter to the Director of Teaching and Learning for: issuing of written warning; re-submission of work for assessment or the undertaking of another form of assessment such as an oral or unseen examination; allocation of a fail grade to part or all of the assessment; allocation a fail grade to the unit.

Referral of the matter to the Dean for: suspension from the course; official disciplinary action by the University Disciplinary Committee.
